

SANFORD DAY CAMP

Summer 2010

Let's meet the Counselors!!

TADPOLES (Kindergarten Boys & Girls)

Meghan Godwin, who recently graduated from the University of Delaware in Early Childhood and Special Education, is the counselor for the Tadpoles. This coming fall this former cheerleader will be working for the Galena Elementary School in Kent County, MD as a Pre-K teacher. The Tadpoles just love Miss Meghan!

IGUANAS (1st & 2nd Grade Girls)

Emily Johnson just graduated from University of Delaware and is certified in Early Childhood Education and Special Education, but she is a camp veteran. This is her second year as a counselor and her fifth year at Sanford Camps! Miss Emily said that the Iguanas' favorite activities are Art and Dance.

MANATEES (3rd & 4th Grade Girls)

Heather Enos is a teacher at St. Paul's Elementary School. She has been a teacher for eleven years and a Sanford Camp counselor for three summers. Heather has a brown belt in karate and also is proficient as a kick boxer! Her Manatees love going to art and the playground.

TOUCANS (5th & 6th Grade Girls)

Kim Hinman just graduated from Wilmington University and is certified in Elementary Educations (K-6). She is currently applying to school districts and private schools in Delaware. This is her first year as a counselor. The Toucans love to swing from the vine in the woods, listen to Mr. Dave's stories at water ice, and go for golf cart rides – they even bribe him for rides!

MACAWS (7th, 8th, & 9th Grade Girls)

Christina Tarrant just finished her third year as a teacher and this is her first year as a counselor. She taught Social Studies at H.B. Dupont Middle School and will be teaching at Stanton Middle School this upcoming year. Christina enjoys reading and playing soccer. The Macaws love going to Chapel Valley to play games.

MONKEYS (1st & 2nd Grade Boys)

Mike Holloway is returning for his ninth summer at Sanford Day Camp. Mike is the coach of Sanford's Cross Country team and teaches Physical Education and Health for grades K through 7 at Sanford. Mike started the Cross Country Camp at Sanford, which is very successful! The Monkeys will surely be spending a lot of time playing ball games.

SLOTHS (3rd & 4th Grade Boys)

Twenty! That's how many summers the Sloths counselor, Brendan Haley, has spent with Sanford Day Camp. During the school year, Brendan teaches algebra and geometry and is now the head Varsity coach for basketball at Charter High School. As in summers past, he will assist Stan Waterman with the Basketball Camp. The Weasels can always be found playing down in chapel valley in the creek with Brendan.

PIRANHAS (5th & 6th Grade Boys)

Dr. Joe Szczerba is the counselor for the Piranhas and this is his eighth summer with us. This competitive group of boys enjoys ball games throughout the day. During the school year, Dr. Joe works at Salesianum School as a teacher for six years and athletic trainer for thirteen years. He has his PhD in Sports Medicine. Dr. Joe comes to camp every day with his children JoeBear and Emma Jo. You can always find the Piranhas exploring the woods down at Yonkos Bridge. The Piranhas are in great hands with this doctor.

BOAS (7th, 8th, & 9th Grade Boys)

Scott Lynch just graduated from University of Delaware with a degree in Music Education and he just completed his first year as a music teacher with the Appoquinimink School District. In addition to teaching, he enjoys performing music, and will be spending most of his weekends this summer at the beach performing with various musical groups. The Boas enjoy playing knock out on the basketball courts, dodge ball, bombardment, and hanging out at the pool at St. Anthony's in the Hills. They also enjoy spending afternoons in Chapel Valley playing Seekers and Destroyers with the Macaws group.
